I was lost in the African wilderness for several years fishing for Elephant fish and although i survived the experience weighing a mere 27 pounds i now go forth into the wilderness with several pounds of jerky,ten gallons of water or wiskey ( depending on my mood) two stoves with extra fuel, a ten pack of Bic lighters, and extra snacks like two five pound chocolate bars,ten pounds of raisins, and assorted trail mix bars. All this fits neatly in my Elelphant Fish tote bag that i purchased on line from the Elephant Fishing Store.
