I, too, enjoyed the Harvey book. I think Dan Shields, who compiled Harvey's thoughts, did the history of PA Fly Fishing a real service by getting this book into print. If you liked this book, you ought to find Charles Lose's "The Vanishing Trout," which is a reprint of an old book that tells of fishing, both w/ live bait and w/ flies in n/c PA. I have read the Lose book twice so far, and it sure brings on waves of wistful nostalgia for what once was. Anyhow, both books are good reads.
