

Subject: : Stream Reports

Topic: : Elk Creek, Erie County, 10/16/2010

Re: Elk Creek, Erie County, 10/16/2010

Author: : JackM

Date: : 2010/10/18 10:45:28

URL:

I tried every color I had, but the only thing that got me a fish was a white crystal flash style egg. I typically use tandem eggs just a foot or less apart and will vary the colors until something works. Those lighter colors such as white, peach, pale yellow and even blue seemed to get more attention than red, purple, orange and chartreuse, but tomorrow it could be totally different. Good luck.