Great point Ryan. I fish in beautiful Dahntahn and the Norside in the in the Ahia , Allygeny and Mon n'at.

Now I catch smallies all the time in these rivers. You would be suprised how many people think the rivers are lifeless. Of course the never take to opportunity to explore them. They just see them as they are whipping by at 60 miles an hour on the highway. It is a shame

Next think ya know the Mon worf 'ul be swamped wit flafeeshermen...and the Alagayney will be elba ta elba. Dahn 'ere at Aberta clamenne park.

Nice gone Bruno...ya jag off! 😊
