

Subject: : Warm Water & Salt Water Fly-Fishing

Topic: : Close to home

Re: Close to home

Author: : Stevie-B

Date: : 2007/10/1 7:42:36

URL:

I have a creek across the street from my house that I fish from time to time, and it is below a treatment plant. It has more Redbreasted Sunfish than is in the local park pond. The chubs can push 12 inches. Throw in some largemouth, smallmouth, and rock bass and you have a nice mix. Sometimes a little additional "nutrients" can be good for a stream.

Steve