Ok, let's try this again.

Pot Luck Swap is official, deadline to sign up is Sat. Nov. 27th, bumped it back a couple days with the site issues. I will send out a PM to all tiers that weekend with my address. This is a little different than most swaps because you will email or PM me your pattern's name and will not post it here, in sense you are keeping it a secret. Due date for flies is Jan. 1st, 2011. If you have any question, just PM me or post them here.
