I have seen a sex act taking place along the banks of the Little Lehigh down towards center city. I have seen the awesomeness of an Osprey crash into the Lehigh after a fish, 3 times in 10 minutes. First time I thought someone dropped a boulder in the water, only to see the osprey flap out. I have seen at the time what I thought was somebody's bagged lunch float by me. Only to find out 20 minutes later that it was a lady's "dry bag" that had all of her money, over 300 dollars, all of her credit cards and her keys to her car in it. that must have sucked for them because they were from New York. I have seen a Russian spear fishing the Delaware drunk. Then when he shot a sucker take it back to his camp and eat it. Last, I saw my friend get attacked by a goose protecting her nest. that was probably the funniest. See a grown man scream like a little girl as the goose chased him up and down the creek. I cried laughing at that.
