I had a blue heron take a fish which was on my line in the Tully. I won a short aerial battle of tug of war, and released the fish unharmed.

Years ago (teenage years), I also had a hawk swoop and miss a rabbit when rabbit hunting. Dog jumped it and was tracking it, ran it out into a field. I shot and missed. Hawk dove and missed. Rabbit went into the woods, where the dog lost it. Dang thing had a dog, human, and hawk trying to kill it and evaded us all!
