How does one bridge the gap between 1wts and scorn for nymphing to 17 weights and surf?

Easily, they're streamers and streamers are fun.

Watching your line twitch? Not fun.

Wondering what the Hell just pulled on your line, fun. You never know what'll come out of the ocean, unless you're me.. Then you can guarantee that it'll be seaweed.

Or, maybe a searobin!

Also, its an 8wt, but I overline it with a 10wt so it feels like a nice, slow action dry fly rod. I also false cast, alot.

I'm not very good at this ocean thing.
