

Subject: : Beginner Forum

Topic: : San Juan worm

Re: San Juan worm

Author: : osprey

Date: : 2010/12/27 8:35:59

URL:

Fred.....they do work and the light pink one like jdaddy says seems to work on water where they see alot of flies. It also works on wild brookies , best when it's raining or has rained and clouds it up a little. Presented just as if you were fishing with bait but you don't get many second chances. I put a red collar on a light pink body and also tie it in natural worm colors with a brown floss collar.