It is impossible to practice casting, during the winter, indoors, in a room with 8 foot ceilings with a 9 foot rod.

Do not sneeze, cough, or sing Led Zepplin while there is a desk full of feathers, fur, and hair in front of you.

Bring two or three rods, I most definatly agree with.

Not only fish like green weenies, so do dogs.

Yes fishing alone is more peaceful, but there is no comradery or commpetition.

If there is no TP the order of operation goes - cut Sleeves first then boxers, then socks ..... never socks first !

water, food, & smokes are essential to survival..... (smokers will understand)
