

Subject: : Conservation

Topic: : HomeWaters Club- different name, same agenda

Re: HomeWaters Club- different name, same agenda

Author: : troutbert

Date: : 2011/1/23 14:18:10

URL:

Quote:

TUNA wrote:

If we are "overfishing" why is the Little J close to becoming a Class A fishery?

According to the recent PFBC electrofishing surveys, the population in the Little J is way over Class A levels.

It's a good point; if streams are managed well, they can support high wild trout populations. Catch and release works.