Thanks, great discussion. I have added a small first aid kit with bandaids, aspirin, and tylenol; a mylar blanket; and water treatment tablets from Eastern Mountain Sports. Also, a small Bic lighter -- I don't smoke and didn't realize there are 2 sizes.

And, these new items just required me to get a new vest, bummer :)

I will also do more to let my wife know where I'm headed, and skip solo trips to rougher ravines when there is too much snow and ice.... My last trip was great, but a bit hairy on the way in:
