I'm with rrt. I had a 2nd ed Ray Bergman Trout from 1952 that I got from my grandfather. Still has the pond I drew in the front cover so I could decide what side I should fish from using Bergman's techniques. Several flies that I apparently liked are circled, as well. Ahhh...the mind of a 2nd grader!

I think Bergman's writing is terrific for a beginner because it is a great blend of useful techniques and intriguing storytelling.
