yea, this is my first year fly fishing actually im a couple weeks new to it. Slippery rock last year was fun with spinning gear on the first day, 60 trout total out of 2 ppl, in about 5 hours for me and my dad. Used a white roostertail. your definatly right about how it gets fished out. i really love small mouth fishing on my baitcasting gear, so it should be really fun on my fly rod if i can. I dont know many parts of the creek except about 500 yards in both directions right at the mcconnells mill and kennedy dam. but they are fun to fish, if you dont mind telling it would be cool if you would suggest some place for smallmouth on the creek with a fly rod.
