fishidiot,

have you ever fished the trough north of the Indian river inlet. used to be marker showing the end of the beach buggy area and the surfing area began. come in right above there and ran parallel to the beach. seen a lot of big fish run the beach there. used to fish sharks there alot.

Yes, but it's been probably 17 or 18 years. I think you're referring to the spot local folks call the "north pocket?" Very similiar situation to what you see at IBSP down at the jetty. Had some great bluefish action at that spot.
