Wild.....it's your God given right to kill and have mounted as many wild trout as is legally permitted that you want to.....but.....protect the resource , let them go.

So, I guess I can't call myself a C&R fisherman ha? lol I caught and released my best ever (13 1/2") native last year. Many guys will never see one that big, let alone catch one. Simple point, not that there should have to be one, is releasing 99.9% of my trout still makes me a C&R guy.
