

Subject: : Warm Water & Salt Water Fly-Fishing

Topic: : s-winder in winter

Re: s-winder in winter

Author: : Maurice

Date: : 2007/11/15 22:23:09

URL:

What is S-winder?

I fished Brunner a few times...never did too well with flies but it is very cool to see sulfurs hatching in 90 degree water in early January.

Shiners work pretty well for the baiters so I would give clousers a shot in white with silver flash.

Now that I have waders that don't leak I will have to give it a try this winter.

Maurice