

Subject: : Paflyfish General Forum

Topic: : 2011 PAFF Annual Jamboree - May 20,21,22 - Seven Mountains CG

Re: 2011 PAFF Annual Jamboree - May 20,21,22 - Seven Mountains CG

Author: : pcray1231

Date: : 2011/3/15 22:20:24

URL:

As far as mayflies, Sulphurs for sure, it's primetime for them. A chance for the end of the March browns or beginning of the Drakes.

And there's always caddis.

Plus nymphs of all types, of course. Based on past weather for the jams, a few big black sculpins or buggers should be in the box.