Joe,

tabasco_joe says,,,,

"I've just started concentrating on learning how to fish buggers."???

That funny, the less I concentate while fishing buggers, the better I do!!!!

I'm definatelly in for this swap, I will be tying a bugger with a deerhair head, no color in mind so if anyone has a prefence let me know, I will tie accordally. What the group decides is fine with me, I will have the flies in by the deadline this TIME!!!!

PS... HAPPY BIRD-DAY everyone!!!
