It's definitely too early, but I'd be interested in carting the pontoon somewhere on the eastern 50-60% of the state in august or sept. July is no dice for me, unless it's pretty early in the month.

Also would consider the NY stretch of the susq or the potomac. The clarion is more than likely too far, but I would try to make it, as that river intrigues me. Anything further west is out of the question for me.
