I guess you guys don't want "socialized medicine" LOL looks like you don't mind paying for your health insurance!! if 1% owns 80% of everything that's OK with you? we're the only western advanced country that doesn't have socialized health care! and everyone else in the world has at least 5 weeks paid vacation and works a 35hr week!

But you choose to "obey orders" and hope for the best!! Don't upset the rich man or you might be living worse than you already are!>

And so forth, etc. etc...

Since you quoted my post, I feel I should point out to you that I wasn't complaining about whether the fart noises were coming from the left or the right, but rather that they were so loud and being provided by people who are allegedly grown up.

I'm not entirely clear as to whether that registered with you the first time through..

Thanks.
