Jay and RL,

I'm also a independent. I know that Michael Moore is fat! LOL but the fat man pointed out how broken our health care system is. I thought Sicko was a excellent movie. I can watch all kinds of movies and formulate my own opinion..... I wouldn't watch something because the film maker is fat!

Anyway, I'm not a Bush basher!..... well maybe a little! LOL

About the float tubes. If you fill a float tube at a gas station, will it fit in the back seat of a mid size car, or in a normal trunk? Or do you have to fill each time at the lake and then take the air out when done fishing?

On YouTube I saw a guy with a tiny battery on a tiny pump..... it filled the tube up in a couple seconds. He walked way into the woods and backpacked everything.
