A guide service is assuming an individual has all the knowledge and experience attained to be able to teach. I would feel weird having a guide younger than myself (31) as i would feel put off that he or she had not attained the proper knowledge or experience to do so. However, thats where your marketing skills come into play. Shoot video of people you know catching fish. Add music make it exciting. Show yourself teaching. Show different locations. Marketing will get you the clients, it's your skills that will keep them and get them to tell there friends.
