Dear Rick,

There are two schools of thought regarding waders.

- 1) Get the absolute best you can afford and wait for them to fail so you can send them back and bitch about their customer service on the internet.
- 2) Go cheap knowing they will fail and treat them carefully. When they fail toss 'em.

I'm in camp # 2 mostly because I can get a pair of 2XL Orvis waders and fit in them. I know Orvis waders suck, but they fit me unlike every other pair of 2XL waders I've ever tried.

Regards,

Tim Murphy 😊
