It is time to get down to the nuts and bolts of the cost to be a guide. Insurance is more like $ 800-1,000.00 for $ 1,000,000.00 in coverage for a total package. CPR, First Aid, $ 50.00, PA Licenses, $ 135.00, Seeing a client catch his first fish on a fly, priceless...

I have been guiding for over 10 years and still enjoy it. It is a lot of work to promote your services. Looking over the listing of guides on the PA Fish commission site will tell you a lot. They have issued around 700 guides licenses in the past 5 year. Only 200 are active. That means 500 have come and gone. I think a lot feel they can make a living from it. I can't, I am blessed to have a very flexible job that allows me to work my guide business.

See you later, need to guide the next two days...Living the dream.
