How much do you tie yourself?

I am pretty much testing the user-created poll feature (I think). But if you want to play along, take the poll regarding what percentage of the flies you use are tied by you.

It allowed me to make the above comment, but I don't see any buttons to set up a poll. I'll hit submit and see what occurs....

PS- when I hit submit on my comment post, it took me to a page to set the poll parameters.

Great addition, Dave. And thanks for the edit button-- I already had to use it (twice).
