i do oc, nj every year. i take a spinning rod to the beach with me and lob bait. when we take a family walk at evening, i take a spinning rod and lob plugs.

when i have time alone, i goto the bay and pretend to fly fish. first year i went, i took a 10wt and it was hard on me. next year, i took an 8wt and overlined it, and it was much more fun. this year, i'm taking that cgr, and will enjoy it immensely. somewhere is a thread about chincotigue, where i answered someone's questions. find it and read it and apply it.
