

Subject: : Gear Talk

Topic: : you use them?

Re: you use them?

Author: : Fishidiot

Date: : 2006/12/22 18:23:41

URL:

I see your point about missed strikes but I think the advantages that polarized glasses offer are tremendous. I never fish without 'em. I spent most of today chasing muskies on the Juniata River (no luck) and even though a dark, wet, day - my amber glasses allowed me to see into the water and watch for follows. I do a lot of sight fishing to trout and smallmouths and would have far less success without the shades.