Here's the whole song:

*You walked into the Jamboree
Like you were walking onto a yacht
Your tweed hat previously dipped into Letort
Your rod it was made by Scott
You had one eye on your flybox
And the other was on your rod
And all anglers dreamed that they'd have your prowess They'd have your prowess, and*

*You're so vain
You must think the world revolves around you
You're so vain
You must think the world revolves around you
Don't you? Don't you?*

*You fooled me several years ago
When I was still a clown
Well, you said that you caught 100 fish
And that you had wrote them down
But you fished alone that very day
And a witness could not be found
I had some dreams I caught trout on a spinner
Trout on a spinner, and*

*You're so vain
You must think the world revolves around you
You're so vain
I'll bet you think the world revolves around you
Don't you? Don't you?*

*I had some dreams I caught trout on a spinner
Trout on a spinner, and*

*You're so vain
You must think the world revolves around you*

You're so vain

I'll bet you think the world revolves around you

Don't you? Don't you?

Well, I hear you went up to Young Woman's Creek

With your flies carefully spun

Then you drove your old car to Kettle and Pine

To see if the Gordons were done

Well, you're fishing where you should be now

And when you're not, you're forced to use an underwater fly of a close friend

Fly of a close friend, and

You're so vain

You must think the world revolves around you

You're so vain

I'll bet you think the world revolves around you

Don't you? Don't you?
