If anyone is interested, myself and Govtmule will be up in Barryville, NY on August 12, 13, 14. We are staying at a nearby campground and plan to float the river on Saturday and Sunday from the Ten Mile River access on the NY side down to our campsite. It is about a 5-6 mile float and absolutely loaded with SMB. This is one of my favorite stretches to float for SMB on the river and I have done many different ones over the years.

We will have a flotilla of rafts and kayaks and plan to spin fish and fly fish. PA licenses will be fine here since it borders PA.

Let me know if anyone wants to join up with us at some point.
