Thats a good idea i drive an hour to work and 45 min. of that is the turnpike its a straight shot.....just kidding.

Don't give anybody any ideas!!! People are already talking on the cellphone with one hand and eating a cheeseburger with the other while driving. They might figure, what the heck, got the cruise control set at 75, might as well tie up a few Woolly-Buggers to pass the time... Arrrggggghhh!!!

I keep having this mental image of where the hooks go when you drop em. Especially a large streamer hook.
