I am glad that you did not post the exact location like some others feel so compelled to do on this board, especially on the Breeches.

I enjoyed your pictures and share your sentiments totally.

Identifying the location and posting numbers always leads to a deterioration in the overall fishing experience for those who follow or frequent a particular section of stream , e.g. Big Spring.

Hopefully, you may continue to enjoy your solitude. You summed up it pretty well and I think that is what we enjoy the most about trout fishing short of catching fish.
