Glad you got into them Turkey. I think I recognize that little patch of sandy mud in the background...

I think you know it well Albie! Thank you again. I didn't get into any big fish...I posted this babe because it seemed like a good sign of things to come.

I did talk to 2 kayakers that drifted past me and asked them what they saw. They were on the "far side" of the creek and implored that I wade over to that side, but I didn't want to risk not being able to see my way out...again. Next time I'll bring a light. You'd think I'd know by now.

Also, I had never heard a Great Blue Heron before...I thought that someone was on the far bank messing with me. When I heard it again, a huge heron came gliding past me. Pretty cool.
