Mine was Ed Shenk's Fly Rod Troutng. When I was a kid I had a paper route. I delivered on Main Street. The folks at the Vacuum store gave me a gift certificate to the used book store for Christmas one year. The bookstore had just opened up beside the vacuum store. I had recently bought a fly rod so I ended up buying this fly fishing book with the gift certificate. At the time I was too young for it, I guess. I glanced at some of the pictures and maybe read a few paragraphs here and there, but it wasn't until this year, probably 20 years later that I decided to read the book and take up fly fishing again. Reading it was a real eye opener! I couldn't believe that I had this book that unlocked all the secrets that were a mystery to me back then. I should have read it when I first bought it. There's a lot of things I should've done!
