Thinking of buying a orvis trout bum 805 or a winston vapor in around same size. I was looking for a little overall advice? I will fish small creeks like ridley and valley creek but also the yellow breeches and the letort. all styles 🍷

I recently bought the 7'6" 6 weight Winston vapor and it's fast becoming one of my favorite rods.

I understand what skiltonian is saying about the 3 and 4 weights but if you throw an occasional streamer they just don't cut it (IMHO).
