Part of the problem is you hiked up the middle of the stream! You gots to hide in the brush.

I'm really excited about this. I LOVE that area. I cut my teeth fly fishing there, and I've been going up there as long as I could walk.

As per lodging, my vote goes to either Ole Bull State Park or Justin's camp, simply 'cause of distance to Cross Fork. My offer, however, still stands. Just know we'll be doin' some driving.

Concerning the issue of finding reliable info about teh QG hatch, would Phil over at the Kettle Creek Tackle Shop be able to offer us reliable info on this? I always enjoy that store and talking to Phil, but I never went to him w/ specifics about a hatch and timing, etc.
