Just throwing this out there....

Jay348 and I are both coming from eastern pa. We are going to try to drive up together, but both have tiny tiny cars - will be a tight squeeze for a 6 hour haul.

Willing to share gas, driving, and expenses if anyone is heading out with a larger vehicle from the eastern pa area that can fit a couple more. 3 people would mean 2 hours driving each - easy trip :)

Either way - i expect to be there.

As for lodging, is it either <http://www.thegreenroofinn.com/> or the sunset? Are they close to each other?

Thanks.
