I wanted to go to erie simply because i've never caught a "real" steelhead. I went to the SR last fall and caught a 15 inch steelie. I don't count that.

Erie would be quite a drive..and i would probably only ever do it once. But i would go up to the SR anytime I can find the time and someone to go with me to accomplish the same goal.

I HAVE caught plenty of blues and stripers. But only on plugs and bait. I have a fair amount of experience chucking "8nbait" in the surf..and plugs in the inlets..but never tried it on a fly rod.

i've always wanted to...and find it hard to pass up the opportunity to learn from those that know what they are doing.

So i am leaning towards the Salt as well.

Now..I have two months to get some salt gear together...
