$250 for a discontinued rod without a warranty. I know u say it is new but what shebop pointed out makes the rod warranty invalid. Also I checked ebay and these rods are going for around 150-175 with a warranty. I would have been interested for around 125 based on the non warranty but 250 is gouging a paff member!

Uhm...Show me the Ebay. I looked and everything is going for $270. If you are going to make up lies, at least be a little sensible. Also, I do not want the cash. I want another rod. Gouging a PAFF member LMAO give me a break. Go bother someone else, I am not in the mood to argue
