Trade for the 7 wt still stands. Comon, you know you want to. :) Seriously, you got two 9 wts you rarely use and one 7 wt you said you don't really like. I got two pretty nice 7 wts I rarely use and am looking for a 9 wt. I know you'd rather have a 5 wt, but this would be a step up in both our situations, no?

Any question of comparable value is no big deal to me. We'd make it work to where we could both be happy in about 30 seconds of discussion.
