I have a 4-drawer box made by Angler's Box & Tool Company based in Springfield, PA. It is a knock-off of the Richardson box. I bought the box 30 years ago and it has served me well. I recently took a spill and banged it on a rock, causing one of the drawers to come loose. It is still useable, but I would like to get it fixed. Unfortunately, I cannot find the company. I suspect they are long out of business.
