Wonderful poppers!! I'm sure they will all catch bass.

But the problem I always have is: When you use big flies you have to also use big rods, like a 7 or 8 weight.

I like to go light, so I can use a 5 or 6wt..... same thing with trout or panfish, I like to use a 3wt.

I know I can catch bigger fish with bigger poppers, but I can't see myself using heavy tackle..... then a spin rod would be better.
