I know this has been touched on in the past, but with the article in the latest American Angler magazine, I'd really like to get on some chain pickerel. From what I gather, the closest place to have a shot at these bad boys is Scotts Run Lake in French Creek SP. Where is a good spot within a short drive of Lancaster/Harrisburg to go after these guys. I'll be fishing from my kayak, so access isn't an issue...
