TM,

I've got a kayak rigged for fishing that I'll be using. So as long as there's a few inches of water, I'm good-to-go!

Jdad - yes, midweeks are available. Just have to plan in advance, that's all! Definitely going to Memorial Lake this weekend, but would like to hit Scott's Run lake. I enjoyed Hopewell even though it wasn't highly successful the day I fished it.
