

Subject: : Tips and Tricks

Topic: : Tight Sticking Erie Steelhead

Re: Tight Sticking Erie Steelhead

Author: : mtangler

Date: : 2011/10/11 22:10:30

URL:

High sticking certainly works well on Erie steelhead. You can also try the Czech style nymphing which has a lower rod angle with the rod tip aggressively downstream of the flies. This allows the line to be tight with the flies while trying to keep them just moving with the current or slightly faster. The advantage is nearly instant hookups on takes.