I know I'm reviving an old thread, but I was essentially gifted a 9' 5 wt ONE rod and all joking aside it is a phenomenal trout rod. Better than the Zed Axis or the Biiix imo. I was super impressed with how it handled dry fly casting at all distances and it is far and away the best streamer rod I've fished. I've yet to nymph with it but found it to be quite sensitive when I was bouncing a wooly bugger off the stream bottom. Only thing that I'm not thrilled with is the grip but I'll get used to it.
