Maybe if its mild in December get a few guys an do it again?

Saltwater fishing really tightens up your casting, and also really hurts my Trout fishing...kinda hard to get ezcited when ya dont get that pull or tug the way big fish do.

Lonewolve - i see you're from the lehigh Valley - you wanna get a few guys to go up again - count me in!

I've got the bug. Bad.

+1...already debating a possible morning trip this weekend as for flies wolve, anything slim or sparse seemed to be doing the trick of matching the baitfish (bay anchovies? i forget already) and the sizes you mentioned were about right.
