Ryan, Ryan, Ryan!!

You just aren't tryin' man! There is ALWAYS something to spend money on!

Here's a few ideas:

Books: The latest update to Dwight Landis's Guide, the FlyTier's Benchside Reference, Clouser's new Tying Book.

Videos: Anything on casting by Joan Wulff, anything on casting or tying by Kreh or Clouser (get a vid of them together... they are hysterical together)

Trips: Get a day on the Susquehanna with Bob Clouser... if you can... book NOW.

Casting Lessons: Emily of www.YellowBreeches.com charges way less than she should (IMHO) and will help you get tight, sexy, effortless loops

Tying: Don't tell me you couldn't use another Whiting Cape in a new color or another.

Clothing: A new fishing shirt or hat is always welcome

Gadgets: How about a light to attach to that chest pack? Or some new flyboxes, so you can create a flybox for every month of the season. Then you'll never be without the right pattern!
