How about State College, PA Maybe you could check with someone at Penn State involved with the PSU Fly Fishing Club and see if you could use one of the classrooms in the ASI building. That is only 10 or 15 minutes away from Spring Creek. There is also a very nice Country Club located in Lock Haven, PA that is located right on Fishing Creek. They have a large banquet room upstairs and a great restaurant down stairs. They might be interested in letting you use that if you were going to have some food and beverages along with the classes. Let me know if you are interested and I could contact them.
